

DATA PROTECTION STATEMENT

Protecting your personal data is a major consideration for us. Accordingly, any processing of your data is carried out solely on the premises of the statutory requirements (General Data Protection Regulation GDPR). This data secrecy information within the scope of our website provides you with the key aspects of our data processing policy.

Cookies

Our website uses so-called "cookies" to help you use the website. These cookies are small text files that are stored on your terminal for the duration of your visit to our website and that, depending on the setting of your browser, are deleted once you terminate the browser. Cookies do not harm your computer and do not contain any viruses. Most browsers have settings that automatically accept cookies. Nevertheless you can deactivate the installation of cookies or set the browser so that it will inform you when a cookie is about to be sent. If cookies are deactivated this may impair the functionality of our website. Please note that if you deactivate the cookie function you are unable to order online.

Some cookies remain on your terminal until you delete them. They allow us to recognise your browser when you next visit our website.

If you do not want this you can set your browser so that it will inform you whenever a cookie is about to be set and asks your permission for every single instance.

Web analysis

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analysing service operated by Google Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses "cookies", i.e. text files stored on your computer that allow analysing your use of the website. Such information on your use of this website as generated by the cookie (including your IP address) is transferred to and stored on a Google server in the US. Your IP address is recorded but immediately abbreviated and pseudonymised, so that only a very general localisation is possible. Google will use such information to analyse your use of the website, prepare reports on website traffic for the website operators and furnish other services in connection with website and internet use. Google will furthermore pass on such information to third parties if so prescribed by law or to the extent a third party processes them on behalf of Google. Google will not link your IP address to other data of Google Inc. You can prevent the installation of cookies by setting your browser software accordingly; however, we need to point out to you that in this case you will not be able to use all functions of this website to the fullest possible extent. By using this website you consent to Google processing data regarding yourself in the above-described manner and for the above-stated purpose.

HOW LONG WILL YOUR DATA REMAIN FILED?

Your data are processed on the basis of Article 6 (1) a (consent) or f (legitimate interests) of the GDPR.

We process your personal data to the necessary extent for the full duration of our business relationship (from contacting to handling to performance of a contract) and, moreover, in line with the statutory safekeeping and documentation obligations. Personal data thus processed are used for statistical purposes as well as for operating, safeguarding and optimising our website.

To the extent that no express duration for safekeeping is specified on collection (e.g. within the scope of a declaration of consent), your personal data are erased (or anonymised) once they are no longer necessary to fulfil the purpose for saving them and no statutory storage obligations (such as preservation obligations under commercial and tax laws) exist. The data are not transferred to any third party, with the exception of companies of the Forster Group within the European Union solely for the purpose of responding to your enquiry.

Copyright

The content of our website, and specifically the description of our products and data, is subject to copyright protection. Such content must not be copied and/or published in whole or in part except with our prior written consent.

Liability / links to other websites

This website was set up using due care and diligence. Nevertheless we are not liable for any defects or for the accuracy of the information contained in it. Any liability for any loss or damage caused directly or indirectly from the use of this website shall be excluded. If this website makes references to internet sites operated by a third party Forster-Ecospace shall not be liable for their content which shall be solely the responsibility of their respective providers.

Your rights

Generally, you are entitled to the rights of information, rectification, erasure, limitation, portability, revocation and objection. If you believe that our processing of your data is an infringement of data protection or that your data secrecy claims are otherwise injured you can file a claim with the supervisory authority.
